

4. (Amended) A photocurable sheet-form material according to claim 1, further comprising one or more resins (e) selected from a (meth)acrylic type polymer, an unsaturated polyester, a vinyl ester, or an urethane acrylate.

5. (Amended) A photocurable sheet-form material according to claim 1, wherein the polymer (b) is included in an amount of 1 to 100 parts by weight, relative to 100 parts by weight of the polymerizable unsaturated monomer (a).

6. (Amended) A layered molding made of a laminate of a thermoplastic resin sheet and a photocurable sheet-form material according to claim 1.

7. (Amended) A method of reinforcement, including a step of using a photocurable sheet-form material according to claim 1 on a surface of a molded article.

TOP SECRET - DEFENSE